“In all of us there is a hunger, marrow deep, to know our heritage – to know who we are and where we came from. Without this enriching knowledge, there is a hollow yearning. No matter what our attainments in life, there is still a vacuum, an emptiness, and the most disquieting loneliness.” —

Educational Resources

John Gelber

Why are you interested in GENEALOGY ??

1. You want to find your Ancestors...
2. You want to know your Ethnicity..... your DNA
3. You want to know who you are related to...
4. You like puzzles...
5. You want to find stories/facts about your Ancestors

Well for any of these you will need resources to find the answers.

Resources for Genealogy

John Gelber

- There are 3 major resources that will help you in Genealogy.
 - Tools
 - Templates
 - Tree Building Software
 - Applications
 - Records
 - Marriage/Birth/Death
 - Census
 - People
 - Relatives
 - Other Genealogists

TOOLS

Keep it Simple

- If you just want to find your ancestors, you can create a handwritten Family Tree.
- Even if you want (and can find them) to go back several generations, it is a simple binary progression:
2, 4, 8, 16, 32, 64, 128, 256, etc.
- I have listed some sources for handwritten templates in the appendix.

My (Partial) Ancestor Family Tree (8 Generations)

jlg

A Descendant Family Tree

jlq

- Another choice of how you might want to expand your Family tree is to:

- Chose an Ancestor

and then

- Find all of his/her descendants

jal

- Start with an Ancestor (such as your 9th Great Grandfather)
- Assume he has 7 children, 5 of them marry and each of them has 7 children....
- Repeat for 8 generations
- Your tree would have 68,125 cousins at your generation
- Plus 19,530 cousins in the 6 earlier levels.
- For a total of almost 90,000 aunts/uncles/cousins.

jl9

- That seems like a large number for just one ancestor.
- But here as a book about my 9th Great Grandfather (whose picture is on the previous slide)
- This book was written in the 1880's so it only has 7 generations... BUT there are over 29,000 descendants listed in the 1500 pages of the two volumes
- I imagine there are over 100,000 now, including me.

A Descendants of John Strong

jlq

- With this kind of a Descendant chart, you can find out who you are related to.
- A few of John Strong's descendants
 - Nathan Hale
 - Jedediah Strong Smith
 - Franklin Delano Roosevelt
 - Bess Truman
 - Patricia & Cliff Arquette
 - Glenn Close
 - Dorothy & Lillian Gish
 - Brooke Shields
 - Princess Diana
 - Kate Upton
- Once you find an Ancestor, you can use this site to find famous relatives....
<https://famouskin.com/>

jlq

- While you are building your tree, you will come across many interesting stories/facts about your ancestors/relatives.

I found my 3rd Great Grandfather (Cheever Strong) was a Civil war hero, moved to SE Kansas and became the County Clerk. He was a pillar of society for the town/county....

Until they found he was embezzling funds and when they went to arrest him. They tracked him down in Minneapolis with an 18 year woman... not my 3rd Great Grandmother.

- “If you share a common ancestor with somebody, you’re related to them.”

It doesn’t mean that you’re going to invite them to the family reunion.

But it means that you share DNA. I think it’s fascinating.”

-Henry Louis Gates

Tools (Software) Applications for your computer

jlg

- These are programs you can load onto your computer to help you build a tree.
- Some provide synchronization with on-line apps.
- I have listed some sources for Applications in the Appendix.

(The app on the right is Family Tree Maker.)

The screenshot displays the Family Tree Maker 2019 interface. The main window shows a family tree diagram with several generations. The tree is centered on John Lewis Gelber (1939-), who is married to Terry Lynn Smith. Above them is Alexander McKenzie (1885-1943), and above that is William E McKenzie (1859-1916). To the right of the tree, there are several other family members listed, including William D McKenzie, Mary Ingles, John Cruden, Ann Hepburn, James Roe Bartis Turley, Lawrence Carlton Turley (1891-1936), Mary Ellen "Sweet" Carlton, Berenice Cathleen Turley (1921-2010), Francis Mirah Niehouse (1896-1954), Charles (Casper) H Niehouse, and Pearl Edna Strong. Below the tree, there are two summary cards: one for Alexander & Berenice Cathleen and another for Wayne Henry & Paula Katherine. At the bottom, there is a table showing children of John Lewis Gelber and Terry Lynn Smith.

| Go # | Children: 3 | Sex | Birth | Death |
|------|---------------------|-----|--|-------|
| < | Rebecca Anne Geber | F | 07 Jul 1983 in Bellevue, King, Washington, USA | |
| < | Matthew Lewis Geber | M | 01 Aug 1988 in Seattle, King, Washington, USA | |

On the right side of the interface, there is a detailed profile for John Lewis Gelber. The profile includes the following information:

- Name: John Lewis Gelber
- Sex: Male
- Age: 82
- Birth: 10 Jun 1939
- Death Valley: Inyo, California, USA
- Death: Date, Place, Description
- Marriage to Terry Lynn Smith: Marr: 15 May 1982, Leoti, Wichita, Kansas, USA

Tools (Software) Applications On-line

jlg

- This is where the choice becomes more of what feels right for you. Most provide a free trial period download
- Most applications charge you to use them, and they actually provide directly or indirectly all three resources (Tools, Record links and other Peoples' input).
- I have listed some sources for Applications in the Appendix.

The screenshot shows the Ancestry.com profile for William D McKenzie. The profile includes a coat of arms, birth and death dates (1832-1904), and a list of facts such as residence, marriage, and births of children. It also features a family tree section with parents and children, and a sources section with various historical records.

Records (The 2nd Resource)

- Records are actual copies of documents. Many of which have been scanned on-line.
 - Such as:
 - Census reports,
 - Birth/Marriage/Death records
 - Obituaries
 - Passenger lists on ships
- Several of the Applications I listed have links to scanned records. Once you start building a tree and then do a search on an individual, you will often be directed to a copy of a scanned record.

Records

- Outside of the applications you can do searches using the following:
 - Google (I've been amazed at what turns up when you do a search!)
 - <https://www.familytreemagazine.com/vital-records/>
 - Actually this is a link to help you find vital record locations.
 - Family Search.com (this will access many of the records scanned by the LDS church)
 - <https://www.archives.gov/>
 - https://www.usa.gov/genealogy
 - Many countries and states have vital records on-line

Records

jlq

- Records are actual copies of documents. Many of which are available on-line.
- Several of the Applications I listed have links to scanned records. Once you start building a tree and then do a search on an individual, you will often be directed to a copy of a scanned record.

(The record to the right is a 1940 Census report.)

People (The 3rd Resource)

jlq

1. The first place you should start is with your relatives.
2. The purpose of our club is to provide resources/people to help you.
 - This will be through seminars, personal help and guidance to resources.

People

jlg

- Other clubs and organizations.
 - Southern Arizona Genealogy Society - <https://www.azsags.org/> (located at La Posada)
 - Southern California Genealogy Society - <https://www.scgsgenealogy.com/>
 - The Villages Genealogy Society - <https://vgsfl.org/index.php>
 - There are over 400 Genealogical Societies which may have info to help you.
<https://www.ngsgenealogy.org>
- Other people's family trees. – You may think this is a record search, but it is not. You are using other peoples research to build you tree, but realize they may have made mistakes. So you are not building directly from facts. Be careful of what you incorporate in your tree.

People

- Books.

There have been many books written on the “Descendants of _____”

and the “Early history of _____”

(this could be a town/family/event).

Check Google, county & society (Such as: Southern Arizona Genealogy Society) libraries.

- Other “records” such as “Sons of the American Revolution applications” and “Find a Grave”

- LDS Family History Centers (There is one in Green Valley and one in Tucson.)

People (Continued)

jlq

- The other “People” resource you might want to consider is a DNA test.
- Besides giving you info on your Heritage. It also links you with more relatives.
- Here is what I mean by that.
 - I have had my DNA test done by Ancestry.com. So now whenever Ancestry informs me of a close match (to a “4th” cousin or closer), I go to their family tree and see what common relatives they have that I can add to my tree. Since we have a DNA match, I feel fairly confident that adding their info will be accurate.
 - btw... I have 1,005 Close matches and I have 22,336 distant (greater than 4th cousin) matches on Ancestry through DNA.
- Another source I use for “current” relatives is Facebook
 - Ancestry often will just show “Living” on Trees, so as to protect identities of people who are still alive. But surprisingly people will list their children and other facts on Facebook.
