

Minutes of the QCGC General Meeting of May 25, 2022

President Pam Williams called the meeting to order at 11:05 a.m.

- Pam welcomed all the attendees. A brief business meeting followed.
- Pam announced that both the club's Financial Report and the Minutes of the April 27, 2022 General Meeting were posted on the Club's website.
- Communications/Membership Committee Chairman Dick Sussman announced that he is sending out a letter to all current paid members which will include a pdf of the membership roster as of this date.
- Education Committee Chairman Mark Hester announced that the workshop on "Breaking Down Brick Walls" held on May 13th was well attended. Mark also stated that there will be no workshops held during June, July and August. Instead, they will be transferred to the general meetings when we will participate in small "break out" groups on various topics. The first formal scheduled workshops will be started again in September.
- The business meeting was adjourned at 11:20.
- After a brief break, in honor of Memorial Day, attendees at the meeting were treated by some of the Club members who volunteered to make presentations about their ancestors who had served in the military during the various wars in which the United States was involved.

The next QCGC General Meeting will be held on June 29 in the Ocotillo/Mesquite rooms at 11:00 a.m. The topic will be "Small Group Discussions".
