

Minutes of the General Meeting of September 28, 2022

- President Pam Williams called the meeting to order at 11:00 a.m.
- A brief business meeting of the Board followed. Board members in attendance were Pam Williams, John Gelber, Norma Schellberg, Bobbi Gordon, Mark Hester, Janice Messer, and Dick Sussman. Absent were Margie Barber and Mary-Lynn Dubray.
- The minutes of the August 31, 2022 business meeting were approved.
- Due to Treasurer Margie Barber's absence, Pam read the treasurer's report as of the September 14, 2022 board meeting.
- Membership Chair Dick Sussman stated we now have about 70 dues-paying members.
- As Communications Chair, Dick reminded the audience to check out our club website at <https://qcgenealogy.com/> to see the new things he frequently has posted.
- Social Events Chair, Bobbi Gordon announced the Quail Creek Genealogy Club "Meet & Greet" social event scheduled for November 2, 2022, from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. in the Madera Clubhouse Copper Lounge. Appetizers will be served, and a cash bar will be available. Tickets are available for purchase from Bobbi at a cost of $12.00, starting today through October 19, 2022.
- The business meeting was adjourned at 11:15 a.m.

The next General Meeting of the QCGC will be held on Wednesday, October 26, 2022, at 11:00 a.m. in the Ocotillo/Mesquite room. Mary-Lynn will announce the speaker at the next Board meeting.

Member Judie Fry introduced our speaker, Alyson Smith, Director of the Sahuarita, Arizona Family History Center located at 17699 South Camino De Las Quintas in Sahuarita. She spoke to us about visiting the center and using it and the www.familysearch.org website for our genealogy research.
