

QUAIL CREEK GENEALOGY CLUB GENEALOGICAL BRICK WALL RESEARCH REQUEST FORM

What is a “Brick Wall”? In genealogy, the term “brick wall” is often used to refer to tough research problems and apparent dead-ends that, after many hours of searching, still yield no answers. Helping other members break down their brick walls to find those elusive ancestors and answers is one of key goals of the Quail Creek Genealogy Club.

Please fill out this form as completely as possible. Asterisks and Bold items are required. (However, you can answer “unknown” for “Destination City” but we request you at least list your “best guestimate” based on any initial family research).

Full name to be researched: (include any known changes): _____

Date and place of birth: _____

Year of emigration and from where: _____

Date and place of death: _____

Destination City/Settlement in America: _____

Name of U.S. Church Attended and/or denomination: _____

Name of spouse: _____

Date and place of spouse’s birth: _____

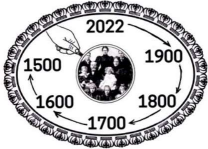

Year of spouse’s emigration and from where: _____

Date and place of spouse’s death: _____

Date and place of marriage, name of officiant: _____

Children — Name, date, and place of birth (please include details here):

Additional information about the family (include details here): _____

QUAIL CREEK GENEALOGY CLUB GENEALOGICAL BRICK WALL RESEARCH REQUEST FORM

Information you are seeking (Your "brick wall" -- include details here & be specific): _____

Where have you looked? What avenues have you explored?_____

Additional information about the individual that you feel might be pertinent:_____

In order for us to better plan for future workshops and/or activities, please provide us with additional workshop topics or activities you would like us to schedule for QC Genealogy Club members: _____

Your name and e-mail, contact information: _____

"I have not failed. I've just found ten thousand ways that won't work."

Thomas Edison

